

Juvenile Expungement: Clear your juvenile record in Kansas

Kansas who have an arrest or conviction on their records from when they were a juvenile (under 18 years old) might be able to get that record cleared.

Kansas Legal Services has an interactive form to create a document for the Court where the arrest or conviction took place.

You must first figure out if your crime is eligible for clearing.

How do I expunge a Juvenile offense?

The interactive interview to create a file for Court is here:

This can be filed:

- at any age, when 2 years have passed since a final discharge (sentence served and restitution paid.).
- at age 23 even if there is no final discharge.
- No felony or misdemeanor conviction after the juvenile case (although courts may often allow this when 2 years have occurred since the prior case was finalized.)

There is a $100 docket fee for filing the expungement.

This is filed in the juvenile court case, using the same case number.
