

PRO BONO NEWSLETTER SEPTEMBER 2015

FREE TRAINING AVAILABLE - OCT 23, 2015 - TOPEKA

Training topics include family law issues and other issues that impact KLS clients including debt collection and public benefit administrative appeals. We will request CLE approval for 4 hours of training. It will be provided free to attorneys who accept pro bono cases from KLS.

Register me for this training. We have had a good response from volunteer attorneys to this training opportunity. We will send you information once the time and location are finalized.

Wichita law firm makes supply drive donation

Kansas Legal Services - Wichita received a donation of office supplies from a local law firm. Martin Pringle asked the staff at the KLS office to make a list. It was not much later that the supplies were delivered to the KLS offices. Thank you Martin Pringle!

FREE CLE

Approved for 3 hours, non-traditional Kansas Programming

This summer, Practising Law Institute's second annual massive open online course, Effective Communication with the Legal Services Client 2015, was once again the talk of the pro bono community. We are pleased to announce that you can now experience this free, unique and interactive program On-Demand through PLI's Interactive Learning Center. This program, taught by Alicia Aiken of the Confidentiality Institute, is available to anyone who wants to learn more about how to work effectively with clients they accept on a pro bono basis. Through 30-45 minute segments that you can take at any time, you will learn:

- Strategies for establishing a trusting and productive relationship
- Techniques for getting to know your client
- Tips for effective communication with your client
- Strategies for helping your client make informed legal choices

JEANS FOR JUSTICE 2015

Jeans for Justice is a fun event for law firms to encourage employee support of Kansas Legal Services. In exchange for a donation to Kansas Legal Services, law firms allow their employees a casual dress day. A law firm can choose any date; make it a part of Celebrate Pro Bono week 2015, by participating between October 25 - 31.
