FAQs: Frequently Asked Questions

What is an Expungement?

Expungement is the removal of an arrest or conviction from a person's criminal record.

When a person's record is expunged, no information related to the arrest or conviction may be disclosed, with certain exceptions.

What Records can be Expunged?

Arrest records, criminal convictions, and juvenile adjudications can all be expunged in Kansas.

What Arrest Records can be Expunged in Kansas?

An arrest record can be expunged if:

- The arrest occurred because of mistaken identity;
- A court found there was no probable cause for the arrest;
- You were found not guilty in court proceedings; or
- The expungement would be in the best interests of justice and either charges have been dismissed or no charges are likely to be filed.

Any arrest record can be expunged and no time limit is required.

What Criminal Convictions can be Expunged in Kansas?

Your criminal conviction can be expunged if the required amount of time has passed and you have not been convicted of a felony in the past 2 years.

→ Some convictions can be expunged 3 years after payment of all fines and the completion of the sentence. Those convictions include minor offenses, traffic violations, and some felonies.

→ Other felonies and motor vehicle offenses, such as driving while suspended, can be expunged 5 years after the completion of the sentence.

Look at this chart to determine how long you have to wait.

Do I have to Get my Convictions Expunged to Vote in Kansas?

No, you can vote as soon as you have been discharged from supervision. That is usually at the end of a period of probation or parole.

If you are granted probation or parole, you are “under supervision” until the probation or parole are finished. When those are finished, you can register and vote in Kansas.

Only people who have been convicted of a state or federal felony lose their voting rights. State law (KSA 21-4603, 21-4603d, 21,4615) prevents persons who have been convicted of a felony from registering to vote, voting, holding public office or serving on a jury.

You have to reregister to vote, even if you were registered before, when you become eligible.

You will not be asked for any proof that you have been discharged from supervision. The voter registration application form contains an affidavit that you sign stating that your right to vote has been restored.

How do I expunge a Juvenile Offense?

The interactive interview to create a file for Court to expunge a juvenile record is here: Juvenile Expungement Interview

This can be filed:

- At any age, when 2 years have passed since a final discharge (sentence served and restitution paid).
- At age 23 even if there is no final discharge.
- No felony or misdemeanor conviction after the juvenile case (although courts may often allow this when 2 years have occurred since the prior case was finalized.)

The expungement of the adult conviction will allow you to then expunge the juvenile conviction.

There is a $100 docket fee for filing the expungement. This is filed in the juvenile court case, using the same case number.
