What to Gather in Preparation for Divorce

Key Financial and Legal Documents You Need for Divorce in Kansas

Below is a list of documents and information you will need to gather and keep in a safe place:

- 1. Have contact information for both you and the other party. This includes family members and employers.
- 2. Social Security numbers of all the parties, including the children.
- 3. Date of births of all the parties, including children.
- 4. State of birth of all the parties, including children.
- 5. Necessary Documentation:
 - Credit reports for you and your spouse. (Each person can pull one credit report per year at www.annualcreditreport.com).
 - Copy of credit card statements (at least the last three months, including transactions). If you don't have a copy, most credit card companies will allow you to print off up to twelve months of reports from their websites.
 - o Bank account information, including transaction reports.
 - Current pay stubs for both parties
 - At least last year's tax returns. If you don't have these you can request a copy from the IRS.

6. List of assets:
