Kansas Parenting Plan Document

This is a form that is needed with a final divorce decree. It is only needed when there are minor children involved.

- It is also useful for talks between separating parents.
 - It can help you create a parenting plan during the separation.
- When an agreement is reached between the parents, Kansas law enforces that agreement upon request to a District Court.

This Parenting Plan document is from the Kansas Judicial Council website.

This page on the Judicial Council has other forms you may need to consider.
