Law at the Library

Location: Marvin Auditorium, Topeka Shawnee County Public Library

Law at the Library - March 18 Topeka Public Library

Have you considered who will make medical and personal decisions on your behalf if you should become incapacitated? Come to Law at the Library to find out more about the importance of advance directives and estate planning basics.

A thirty-minute informational program will be held 12:30 pm, followed by an opportunity to have advance directive legal documents drafted for FREE! Kansas Legal Services staff will be available to meet with community members age 60+. Legal documents such as Powers of Attorney and Living Wills can be prepared on site.

Please come take advantage of this great opportunity.

Documents that can be prepared for free include:

- Financial Power of Attorney
- Health Care Power of Attorney
- Living Will

Assistance provided on a first come, first served basis. Individuals will be required to complete a short application form prior to meeting with an attorney.
