View Webinar on Clearing Your Record

On June 4, Kansas Legal Services (KLS) and the Access to Justice (A2J) Lab of Harvard Law School hosted a webinar on the topic of erasing criminal records in Kansas – a process legally known as expungement.

Attorneys answered live questions from the public after giving an overview of the expungement process.

Viewers also learned how to get free legal help for expungement through Clean Slate Kansas, which is a collaborative project between the two organizations.

This event was recorded and is now available for viewing.
