Children's Advocacy Resource Center (CARC)

CARC provides services for children involved in foster care and other interested parties involved with children's cases. This can include:

- Attorneys or Prosecutors
- Parents or Relatives
- Guardians Ad Litem
- Social Workers
- Foster or Pre-Adoptive Parents
- Foster Children

Legal Services are provided in children's cases through two state-wide projects:

- Guardian Ad Litem Support Center (GALSC)
- Foster Care Helpline (FCH)

Funding For The Guardian Ad
Litem Support Center
And Foster Care Helpline Is Provided By
The KANSAS OFFICE OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

Guardian Ad Litem Support Center (GALSC)

Specialized services for Guardians Ad Litem are an important part of the CARC project. GALSC offers resources and services for Guardians Ad Litem at no cost, such as technical assistance and training, research, sample pleadings and litigation support.

Foster Care Helpline (FCH)

The Foster Care Helpline (FCH) provides legal advice, representation and referral services to foster care children, their foster care families, and those involved with the Child In Need Of Care system. The helpline offers legal assistance and identifies community resources to help achieve safe and permanent placement for children in foster care.

Requests for services can be made by calling:
