Section	n II. Legal Custody (Decision-M	(aking)
☐A.	$\textbf{\textbf{Joint Legal Custody.}} \ Mother \ and \ Father \ shall \ have \ joint \ legal \ custody \ of \ their \ minor \ child (ren). \ "Joint \ legal \ l$ custody" means that both parents have equal rights to participate in, contribute to, and have responsibility for matters of health and education in their child(ren)'s best interests. Neither parent's rights are superior to the other parent's rights, and they sh	ould cooperate to deter	rmine what is in the	neir children's best interests.
□B.	Sole Legal Custody. Joint legal	custody is not in the cl	hild(ren)'s best in	terests. "Sole legal custody" means that the parent granted sole legal custody has the primary right to decide matters of health and education in the $child (ren) \\ 's \ best \ interests. \ The \ parent \ not \ granted \ sole \ legal \ custody \ may \ make \ emergency \ decisions \ affecting$ the child(ren)'s health or safety when the child(ren) are in that parent's physical care and control. The grant of sole legal custody to one parent does not deprive the other parent of access to information regarding the child(ren) unless the court specifically orders, stating the reasons for that determination.
	1. Sole legal custody is granted		for the following	greasons:
	a. Agreement of the	ne parents.

Section V. Military Deployment, Mobilization, or Unaccompanied Tour ☐ Mother ☐ Father is a military servicemember and the following shall apply upon notice of deployment, mobilization, temporary duty, or unaccompanied tour:
1. A parent receiving deployment, mobilization, temporary duty or unaccompanied tour orders from the military shall be considered a "deployed parent."
2. The absence, relocation or failure to comply with a parenting order by a "deployed parent," shall not by itself constitute a material change in circumstances to make any permanent change to the parenting plan.
3. Any court order limiting previously ordered parenting rights due to the parent's deployment, mobilization, temporary duty, or unaccompanied tour shall state that event as its basis and shall constitute only a "temporary order."
4. The nondeploying parent shall provide the court and deployed parent at least 30 days advance written notice of any change of address or telephone number.
5. The nondeploying parent shall reasonably accommodate the deployed parent's leave schedule.
6. The nondeploying parent shall facilitiate telephone and electronic communication between the children and the deployed parent.
7. The deployed parent shall provide the nondeployed parent with timely information about the deployed parent's anticipated deployment, leave during deployment, and release from deployment.
8. During deployment, mobilization, temporary duty, or unaccompanied tour, the parents shall make decisions about the children by the following methods:
9. During deployment, mobilization, temporary duty, or unaccompanied tour, the children shall live with:
Mother Father Other and the deployed parent shall have the following parenting time with the child when available:
Section VI. Address-Change
A Mother and Father shall each notify the other parent of any address change in writing no less than 30 days

A. Mother and Father shall each notify the other parent of any address change in writing no less than 30 days before changing address by sending written notice to the other parent by certified mail – restricted delivery, return receipt requested, at that other parent's last known address.

- B. Mother and Father shall each notify the other parent of any plan to remove any child(ren) from the State of Kansas for more than 90 days by sending written notice to the other parent by certified mail restricted delivery, return receipt requested, at that other parent's last known address.
- C. A parent is not required to give written notice of removal to the other parent under either (A) or (B) if the other parent has been convicted of a crime specified in Article 54 (crimes against persons), Article 55 (sex offenses), or Article 56 (crimes affecting family relationships and children) of Chapter 21 (Crimes and Punishments) of the Kansas Statutes Annotated to which the child(ren) was the victim.
